Subject: Board Policy Professional Standards For All Roger Williams University Employees

Dear Colleagues,

We have an exceptional workforce in Roger Williams University that is strongly committed to the highest standards of ethical conduct and professionalism. Our employees work tirelessly every day to ensure that we deliver the highest quality education for our students to prepare them for success beyond graduation. Nevertheless, as an organization committed to the Roger Williams University principles of performance excellence and continuous improvement, we can always improve our operational processes. Detailed information can be found in the attachment to this email. All employees are advised to review the information.

Yours Sincerely
